Undulating Memories

A poem by Nancy J. Furlow

Undulating memories reflecting on the surface of my life. Shimmering. Shifting. Moving endlessly. As the light of love softly outlines the images. As the darkness of murder's shadows takes them from my grasp in its murkiness. Undulating memories. Shimmering. Shifting. Moving endlessly.

Nancy J. Furlow

Grandmother/Mother of Brandon C. Irlmeier

Murdered in Anchorage, Alaska, on December 2, 2017

Victims for Justice is caretaker of this park, which offers solace to many Alaskans who have lost loved ones to violence. If you have the ability, we ask that you consider making a donation today.

Any contributions will not only be used to maintain the park, they will also help provide much-needed services to Alaskans impacted by homicide, arson, assault, robbery, kidnapping, DUI, and hit-and-run offenses. Our services are always free of charge. We gratefully accept donations throughout the year and would appreciate any contribution, large, small or somewhere in between.

Thank you for contributing what you can through our website or sending a check to us at:
